An English abstract of a pseudonymous petition purporting to be from one Venkataraya of Nanjangud

The petitioner represents that the temple of Sri Srikanteswaraswamy at Nanjangud is intended more for the rich than for the poor and complains that the vessels etc. of the Sivakoota are in use in the house of the Sub-Division officer, and that after they are worn out, they are brought back to the temple and repaired from the funds of the institution. He further complains that the said officer has allowed a lot of arrears of muzrai work to accumulate and that unwholesome food is served to the Brahmins in the Sivakoota, though the expenditure shown is large. He further states that the temple Seshkar is a filthy person, who rarely goes to the temple, and does not attend to his duties properly. He urges that the Valagudi-Paupathegar Srikantiah does not attend to the Stanik duties of the temple and has not furnished any security. He further states that the temple manegar has furnished security for Rs 500/ instead of Rs 1000/ and that he is subject to fits and consequently the devotees are afraid of going to the temple. He adds

Submitted that a personal inspection
